New onboard content to discover with Air Tahiti

Tahiti, April 24, 2026 – Air Tahiti is enhancing its onboard entertainment service, AirTahitiOnboard, with a new selection of local and international content, available free of charge on all ATR-operated flights.

Accessible via smartphone, tablet, or laptop, this service allows passengers to enjoy an immersive travel experience from takeoff and discover the islands of Tahiti in a whole new way.

New highlights

For this new programming, Air Tahiti is showcasing exclusive content focused on Polynesian culture, traditions, and history, available in French, English, and Tahitian:

- The Pioneers of Tahitian Surfing, a documentary on the history of surfing in Polynesia
- The Route of the Arts, an exploration of traditional Polynesian objects
- Rava'ai, an immersion into 15 fishing techniques in French Polynesia
- The Otahiti Sugarcane, a story about an iconic agricultural heritage
- Stranded Pearl, a romantic adventure film shot in the Cook Islands
- New episodes of Hiro'a Tumu, dedicated to cultural and historical sites across the islands
